

Suggested Interview Questions For Guy Brown

Intended for the release of Look Up to See What the Weather Will Be

- When did you know you wanted to be a meteorologist?
- How long have you been studying weather?
- How does it feel to have your first book published?
- What made you decide to write a book?
- What was your biggest goal for this book?
- What did you like most about writing this book?
- Do you plan to write more books about weather?
- There are a lot of fun facts about animals in your book. Can you talk about why you chose to include how weather affects animals?
- Do you have any pets?
- What books do you like to read? Who is your favorite author?
- I've heard you recently moved from DC to Minnesota. What has that change been like for you?
- How has climate change impacted your field?
- Did you like science in school? What do you think is the best way to help kids develop a lasting interest in science?
- If you could not be a weather anchor, what would you do instead?
- What is the craziest weather phenomenon you've seen?
- Have you ever been struck by lightning?
- What is your favorite season of the year?
- What city/region has the best weather?
- What is the coldest temperature you have been in? What is the hottest?
- What is your favorite type of cloud?
- What is the most interesting fact you know about weather?